TRILOGIES:

INTERSECTIONS OF CULTURE, IDENTITY AND EDUCATION IN CINEMA

An initiative of the Centre for Culture, Identity and Education that brings together, during the Fall term of 2019 and the Winter term of 2020, three narrative films and facilitated discussions, each time by the same director, and focussing on the intersections of culture, politics, identity, and education.

The first Trilogy includes three films by pioneer Senegalese filmmaker Djibril Diop Mambéty (Colobane, Senegal 1945 - Paris, France 1998).
